JOHNSON COUNTY AUTO DEALER ARRESTED FOR TAX EVASION

Greenwood resident and businessman, Stephen K. Elmore, owner and operator of the former Moe White Auto Brokers, was arrested on 25 different felony counts on Tuesday, August 28, 2001. The Indiana Department of Revenue Criminal Investigation Division filed the charges with the Marion County Prosecutor's office as a result of an investigation into the business practices of Elmore at various locations in Johnson and Marion Counties.

Elmore is charged with twelve counts of Failure to Remit Indiana Sales Taxes (Class D felonies), twelve counts of Theft (Class D felonies), and one count of Corrupt Business Influence (a Class C felony).

He is alleged over a twelve-month period to have collected in excess of $7,900.00 in Indiana sales tax from his customers but failed to remit those taxes to the state.
